To Whom It May Concern
Mr. Paul Suchecki

My name is Brian Stewart and I have been in the employ of TMW Media Group, Inc. in the capacity of Digital Production and Business Development for the past twelve years. During this period I have employed Mr. Suchecki in the capacity of researcher and script writer for several projects including the acclaimed series "The Black American Experience" a series developed for the educational marketplace as well as web broadcast.

My experience with Paul in connection with his adept skills as a writer have been stellar. His ability to bring to the screen compelling, accurate and timely depictions of the biographies of individuals featured in the series has been the critical key for the success of the series.

I do not hesitate in recommending Paul Suchecki in whatever research or writing capacity he chooses to pursue. In my opinion, Paul is dependable, reliable and an asset to any organization he provides his services to.

Sincerely,
